Fort Lauderdale, FL — October 26, 2009 – Wayne Huizenga, Jr. will be the keynote speaker at the Annual General Meeting of the U.S. Superyacht Association at 8:00 AM on Saturday, October 31, 2009. The breakfast meeting will be held upstairs in the Grand View Room at the Bahia Mar Resort and is being sponsored for the third consecutive year by Alexseal Yacht Coatings.

“We are thrilled that Wayne Huizenga, Jr. is going to address our annual General Members Meeting this Saturday,” commented Tim Davey, Chairman of the USSA Board of Directors. “He brings a diverse perspective on the issues facing the superyacht businesses of the United States, from government regulations with inconsistent enforcement to coastal land development to renovating refit yards. He is sensitive to our issues and concerns and we’re looking forward his ‘State of the Industry’ update.”

Wayne Huizenga, Jr. is the President of Huizenga Holding, Inc., a diversified company that is a stakeholder in the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League and Land Shark Stadium in South Florida as well as investments in banking, resorts, marinas and real estate. He is the founding board member of the Bank of Florida and Chairman of the Board of Rybovich, a marina and superyacht refit facility in West Palm Beach, FL. He graduated from the University of Tampa with a degree in business in 1985 and assisted his father, Wayne Huizenga, Sr., in his many business ventures.

The U.S. Superyacht Association was incorporated in September, 2006. This is the third annual General Members Meeting, which was moved to Saturday this year, in order to accommodate the west coast members, the San Diego Superyacht Association and the Pacific NW Yachting Association. The breakfast buffet is open to all USSA members, their guests and interested potential members.
